~~CIA LEADERSHIP WILL CHANGE IN THE FALL~~

Prague CTK in English to Europe 1519 GMT 1 August 1961--L

(Text) President Kennedy has decided to pension Allen Dulles, chief of the American intelligence service, in the fall, according to a report in the 1 August London DAILY TELEGRAPH.

Kennedy wants to appoint in his place New York Attorney F. Hamilton. Hamilton is said to be acquainted with and have had experience in the activity of the American intelligence service, having been a member during the last war.
